received by the Dutch population and was the cause of the riots in Amsterdam, Haarlem, Zaandam and Hilversum. The said towns were heavily fined heretofore. These riots have, however, had a quite different result. They were for the Germans a reason to found Jewish councils. Provisionally two were created. One at Amsterdam under the joint presidency of the Chief Rabbi, Prof. Dr. D. Cohen and A. Asscher and one at Haarlem under the presidency of Chief Rabbi H. Frank (Later on the Germans have thought better of this idea of several councils; at any rate the number has never increased, on the contrary, the Jewish council at Haarlem has disappeared gradually. Chief Rabbi Frank has later been shot on a false charge of sabotage.) In the meantime the German centralized the forces which were to work against the Jews. Until then the anti-Jewish measures had been taken by the Beauftragte für die Stadt Amsterdam. Now a new institution was created. The "Zentralstelle für Jüdische Auswanderung". This body formed part of the political S.S. and more or less of the Gestapo. In any case it was outside the jurisdiction of the German civil authorities. Leader of the Zentralstelle was S.S. Obersturmführer Aus der Fichte. This man has shown himself in the course of the following months to be one of the worst war criminals in Holland.

He is perversely cruel. During frequent conferences with Prof. Cohen, who is over 60 years of age, he kept him waiting for hours without giving him a chair, and even during the conferences did not offer him a seat. At other times when he decided whether certain persons were to be deported or not, he was definitely intoxicated. For the rest he kept to the usual German system of promising a lot and doing nothing.

In the spring of 1941 the Jews were forbidden to visit cinemas on the pretext that they provoked unrest during the newsreels.

In the course of March came the news that all lawyers and physicians of Jewish parentage would only be allowed to have Jewish clients and patients as from the first of May.

In June 1941 followed the fusion of the Jewish council for Amsterdam and the Coordination Commission, by order of the Zentralstelle.

In the early summer of 1941, the Jews in the Netherlands got the first taste of what the Germans are like. In the course of a few weeks approximately 800 youths from 18 to 20 years of age in Amsterdam, and approximately 200 youths of the same age in Twente and the Achterhoek were taken from their

- 1.) The object of the serial numbers is simply to facilitate reference to the persons on the list.
- 2.) It should be noted that the spelling of the names has been recorded phonetically in some cases and should not necessarily be taken as definite while checking the identity of persons apprehended.
- 3.) The information given in brackets under each name does not necessarily refer to the nationality of the individual but indicates the enemy organisation, office or unit, with which the individual, though of different origin, was serving. In the latter case, his actual nationality or origin is given in the Miscellaneous Notes.
- 4.) The column headed "War Crime" is only intended to indicate in general terms the nature of the act of which the individual is accused.
- 5.) Categories of classification are indicated by the following: "A" - War Criminals; "S" - Suspects; "W" - Witnesses.
